FROM YOUR PASTOR'S DESK

In his book, A Forgiving God in an Unforgiving World, Ron Lee Davis tells the true story of a priest in the Philippines, a much-loved man of God who carried the burden of a secret sin he had committed many years before. He had repented but still had no peace about it. In his parish was a woman who deeply loved God and who claimed to have visions in which she spoke with Christ. The priest, however, was skeptical about that. To test her he said, "The next time you speak with Christ, ask him what sin I committed while I was in the high school." The woman agreed. A few days later the priest asked, "Well, did Christ visit you in your dreams?" "Yes, he did," she replied. "And did you ask him what sin I committed back in high school?" "Yes." "And what did he say?" She smiled and answered, "Christ said, 'I don't remember.'"

Today's gospel story happened at the precincts of the Temple of Jerusalem where Jesus had been teaching. His opponents brought forward a woman caught in the act of adultery. The Mosaic penalty for such an offense was death by stoning although there is no evidence that this ever took place, certainly not in Roman times. Stoning was mostly done in cases of blasphemy; such was the case with Stephen, whom we read about in the book of Acts. The Jewish civil and criminal code considered three grave sins as punishable by death, namely idolatry, murder and adultery. Deuteronomy prescribes death by strangulation for a married woman caught in adultery. If the guilty woman is betrothed she has to be stoned. In both cases they have violated God's sixth commandment and have destroyed the fidelity and unity of marriage. His opponents wanted to use the occasion to embarrass Jesus, because he had the reputation of proclaiming God's mercy toward sinners.

The central theme of all three readings is a merciful God's steadfast love. Both the psalm verses and the reading from Paul invite us to respond to such divine graciousness with joy and gratitude. The readings also encourage us to reflect seriously on the ultimate example of God's compassionate love for us. They remind us that we cannot stand self-righteously and condemn the lives of others when God is calling them tenderly to conversion. Repentance is not something we do. It is allowing the forgiving power of God to touch our lives and lead us along new paths.

During the remaining days of Lent try the following..

Give up complaining.....focus on gratitude. Give up pessimism...become an optimist. Give up harsh judgments...think kind thoughts. Give up bitterness.....turn to forgiveness. Give up hatred.....return good for evil. Give up negativism.....be positive. Give up anger.....be more patient. Give up pettiness.....become more mature. Give up jealousy....pray for trust. Give up gossiping.....control your tongue. Give up gloom.....enjoy the beauty that is all around you!

A word of sincere thanks for all who signed the Pledge cards this weekend. If you have not done so, please do, that will help us to make our financial plans for the coming year. Remember, it is not just Time OR Talent OR Treasure—it is ALL THREE in your own little way! God loves a cheerful giver!

Smile!

Davis Chackaleckel, MSFS

Worry is a misuse of the imagination.

Our Lady of Copacabana - Under this title, Mary is patroness of Bolivia. The statue seen at the basilica in Copacabana was created in 1583. Over the centuries the image has been showered with valuable gems and presently is seen with rich jewels on her neck, hands, and ears—the gifts of her devotees. The original image never leaves the sanctuary; a copy is used for processions.
